Language – Classes will have a variety of activities offered in spelling, vocabulary, grammar, reading, reading comprehension and writing. Students will be able to work independently at their level of difficulty and increase as they master previous levels. Students will be encouraged to work on all skills at some point during the week.

Math – Classes will have a variety of activities offered in basic math skills (addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division), fractions, decimals, algebra, geometry, and others depending on individual skill level and need. Students will be able to work independently on needed skills at their level of difficulty and move at their own pace as they master skills. Each student will have a chart of 3-4 skills to work on during the week and progress will be tracked for each.

Special Friday Topics – Classes will have some group instruction followed by independent activities depending on skill level of each student.

Independent work will be offered using a variety of activities and media, including but not limited to: computer drills, computer games, worksheets, timed drills, interactive games with instructor or other students, manipulatives, flash cards, and puzzles.

Classes are offered at $15/class, $120/12 classes (no refunds, can be used from 1 June – 21 August), $200/24 classes (no refunds, can be used from 1 June – 21 August), $252/36 classes (no refunds, can be used from 1 June – 21 August).

Bulk lesson rates can be shared between siblings.

Pre-registration is required as there is a max of 8 students per class. Students can register up to 24 hours before class time as long as there are spots available. Changes to registered classes must be made 48 hours prior to class unless illness or emergency. Any class that is registered for will be counted on bulk rates whether your student attends or not.

The center is available for appointments 4-8pm Monday-Thursday or by special arrangement at $20/hour. Tutoring at these times will be set up to meet specific goals agreed upon by instructor, student, and parents.
